Section Overview

The Sentence Completions section consists of 20 multiple-choice questions. Each question presents an incomplete sentence with a blank or blanks. Your task is to choose the answer choice that best completes the sentence, making it grammatically correct and meaningful.

The questions draw upon a wide range of topics, including literature, history, science, and social studies. The sentences are typically complex, featuring sophisticated vocabulary and intricate sentence structures. To excel in this section, you need a strong foundation in vocabulary, grammar, and reading comprehension.

Strategies for Success

- 1. Read the Sentence Carefully: Before you jump into answer choices, take a moment to read the incomplete sentence thoroughly. Identify the main idea or concept it conveys.
- 2. Identify the Context: Pay attention to the words and phrases surrounding the blank. They provide valuable clues about the type of word or phrase needed to complete the sentence logically.
- 3. Look for Keyword Relationships: Examine the relationship between the sentence's subject and verb, as well as between the blank and its surrounding words. This will help you narrow down the answer choices.
- 4. Eliminate Obvious Mismatches: Start by eliminating answer choices that are clearly incorrect or do not match the context of the sentence.
- 5. Consider the Tense and Part of Speech: Ensure that the answer choice you select agrees with the tense and part of speech required by the incomplete sentence.
- 6. Practice Regularly: The key to mastering Sentence Completions is consistent practice. The more problems you solve, the more familiar you will become with the types of questions and the strategies for solving them.
